Columbia Gorge Museum

Collections Donation

The Columbia Gorge Museum collects materials that tell the story of the Columbia River Gorge and its peoples. Special areas of interest include Indigenous people of the Columbia River Gorge, the logging industry, railroad and transportation, agriculture, and the spiritual practices of people in the area.

If you have an item that fits this description, please complete the Collections Donation form (available below) and return it to the museum for review. While we appreciate your willingness to share your historical objects with us, we cannot accept every donation. However, we can provide you with contact information for other organizations which may be interested in them.

Contact Information

Name: Phone Number:

Email Address:

Mailing Address:

Donation Information

Description of Materials:

Please describe the number and type of objects you are interested in donating. Please include dimension of large objects.

In addition, please include photographs of the object(s) you are interested in donating.

Condition of Materials:

Please describe the condition of the objects. If they are damaged, please describe what type of damage , how extensive and if any repairs have been done.

Connection to Columbia River Gorge:

How are these objects related to the Columbia River Gorge, its peoples and/or its history? Who owned/made/used them? Where were they collected?

Ownership History:

When and how did you acquire these objects? If you know who owned them before you, please also list that history.

If you need more room to write, please feel free to attach additional pages to this form.

Don't forget to attach photos of the object(s) you're interested in donating!

990 SW Rock Creek Drive
Stevenson, WA. 98648
Phone: 509.427.8211
Email: m.ricks@columbiagorge.org